

Be here, be there, be everywhere. At The KODO, thrive at the hub of creativity in Los Angeles. Koreatown is LA's newest frontier for innovators, entrepreneurs, and artists, located at the heart of a cultural mashup between Hollywood and DTLA. The city's trendiest coffee shops, restaurants, nightclubs, and bars are all within reach. The KODO is at the center of the action surrounded by an energetic and diverse community, where fresh ideas spark and new connections form.

Arts & Architecture Museum-goers, rejoice.

Let your eyes indulge in historic Art Deco buildings that shape much of Koreatown's landscape today. Downtown's Broad Museum, Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA), Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and the Walt Disney Concert Hall are just a short trip away.

Bars & Live Music

Places to be and people to see – that's the pulse that Koreatown thrives on. Start your night with craft cocktails at Lock & Key, then head to The Wiltern for a live show. Leonard Cohen, Foster the People, Broken Social Scene, and Blink 182 are just a few top headliners who've performed in Koreatown. Down for karaoke? Sing your heart out at the Café Brass Monkey – or switch it up and make your way to The Edison for an upscale, 1920s-themed burlesque show.

Transportation

Getting there – made easy. It's true that Los Angeles is notorious for traffic – but most don't know about its impressive public transit system. Catch the subway at the Wilshire/Western station on the Metro's Purple Line and make it to downtown LA in a flash. Rather walk? Koreatown is a "Walker's Paradise" – rated 95 out of 100 on Walk Score. Headed to West LA? Hop on one of the major bus lines intersecting in Koreatown, or drive there with The KODO's on-demand Envoy car.

All of Los Angeles in Reach

Koreatown is located conveniently between downtown LA and the West side – anything's within 30 minutes travel time. LA is known for its world-class shopping centers, arts and cultural events, live concerts and entertainment. Never let your fear of missing out take over. At The KODO, you won't miss a beat.

#helloKODO